Islamic Center of Jonesboro

118 N Rogers St
Jonesboro, AR 72401
(870) 935-2658
Year Completed: 1982

The Islamic Center of Jonesboro (ICJ) was established in 1980 and completed in 1982. The ICJ plays a big and crucial part in the life of Muslims and non-Muslims alike being the only Masjid and Islamic center in the vicinity. A major achievement through the efforts of the Muslims of Jonesboro was in establishing a regular course in teaching the Arabic language in Arkansas State University. The graduated Muslim students of the university were the pioneer teachers. The closest Masjid to ICJ is in Memphis, Tennessee, about 80 miles away, and the closest Masjid in the state of Arkansas is located in Little Rock and is about 120 miles away from Jonesboro. Currently, the ICJ serves about 300 Muslims and aspiring for bigger plans to build a Muslim cemetery, a funeral and burial facilities, a full-time Islamic school and an Islamic endowment to suffice the needs of the center and community. The center also aspires for renovation and expansion.

There are about 15 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 2 full time Islamic schools in Arkansas.

www.mcpcb.org

Year Completed: 1996

The Muslim Community of Palm Beach County, Inc. is one of the largest Muslim organizations in the Greater Palm Beach and surrounding area, with an estimated Muslim population of 8000 people, up from about 2,500 a decade ago. The MCPB is one of seven mosques and Islamic centers in Palm Beach County. It started in a purchased home on the same property in 1988. The community expanded the property to about 11 acres and built a $600,000 mosque in 1996. The center offers a number of services, including hosting daily prayers, marriage ceremonies, children's education, religious counseling, inter-faith dialogue, and more.

There are about 130 Mosques/Islamic centers and 16 full time Islamic Schools in Florida. Major Muslim concentrations in Florida are in Tampa, Orlando, Miami/Fort Lauderdale and their vicinities.

442 14th St NW
Atlanta, GA 30318
(404) 874-7521
www.alfarooqMasjid.org
Year Completed: 2008

Al-Farooq Masjid was established in 1980. At the time it was one among a few mosques in the southeastern United States. Since then, it has been serving the community at large by promoting goodwill and understanding about Islam. Today, the mosque is one of nearly 35 in the metro-Atlanta area serving about 75000 Muslims from over 50 countries. In 1990 the Masjid started Dar-un-Noor full time School that currently has 200 students in pre-K through 8th grade. In the mid nineties, the Muslim population not only increased to an unprecedented level but it also spread extensively to the suburbs of Atlanta. To meet the worship and educational needs of the community, Al-Farooq Masjid was prompted to establish Masjid Omar Bin Abdul-'Aziz in the Norcross area of Atlanta. This neighborhood community mosque attracts a large number of Muslims for the daily prayers and over 400 worshippers for Friday prayer. Also, over 100 Muslim children attend daily afternoon Quranic and Islamic classes.

There are about 90 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 9 full time Islamic Schools in Georgia.

Masjid Al-Noor was built near the Wichita State University campus in 1983. It is serving students and others with a capacity of 300 worshippers. Plans were initiated to build a community project composed of a school building, new Central Masjid and an activity center. At the end of 1996, 8.4 acres of land in a prime location was purchased for the community project. In the fall of 2000, the Muslim Community Center was completed as the first phase of the project. It included a multi-purpose room with classrooms and administrative offices to house the Annoor Islamic Elementary School that has 107 students now from pre-school to 8th grade. The second phase of the project which was completed in 2005 included, building a new Masjid and a support complex to accommodate the growing needs of the community.

There are about 16 Mosques/ Islamic centers and one full time Islamic school in Kansas.

The ISBCC is the largest Islamic center in New England, and the second largest on the East Coast. The 70,000 square foot building stands tall on Malcolm X Blvd. in the heart of Boston, a Muslim handprint on the city skyline. The ISBC is the cornerstone of the New England Muslim community. The facility includes a prayer hall capacity of 1600 worshippers, a library, an interfaith center, an aerobic fitness center for women, a multipurpose hall, a kitchen, an underground parking garage, an exhibition space, and a morgue. It is also planned to house a school (by 2013). ISBCC is trying to get a usage permit for the prayer hall while working on completing all other aspects. Successful programs include diversity training of law enforcement officials, the distribution of Udhya meat to local residents, and leadership and spiritual development programs for the youth. ISBCC is currently operating from the Islamic Society of Boston (ISB) location at 204 Prospect St in Cambridge.

There are about 40 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 7 Full time Islamic schools in Massachusetts.

Dar Al Islam is a non-profit educational organization incorporated in New Mexico in 1979. Its work began with a meeting, at the Ka'aba in Mecca, of an American-educated Industrialist with an American-born Muslim. Their dream was to establish a Muslim Village as a showcase for Islam in America. Northern New Mexico was chosen as an inspiring location. World-renowned Egyptian Architect Hassan Fathi designed a masjid with an attached madressa (school) in traditional North African style. Soon after construction started in 1980, it became clear that a village of exemplary Muslims is not something to be engineered. In 1991 Muslims were surveyed nationally and a meeting of national leadership was held to assess and prioritize the relevant issues for Muslims living in America. The results helped clarify the direction. Parcels of land were sold and an endowment was created for the support of the activities. 1357 acres were retained surrounding the Masjid and Madressa which is now used as a conference and retreat center.

There are about 11 Masajid/Islamic centers and 1 Full time Islamic school in New Mexico. The largest Muslim congregation and Masjid in the state is the Islamic Center of New Mexico in Albuquerque which also is responsible for Salam Academy of about 70 students (Pre-K to 8th grade).

Year Completed: Early 2000's

Masjid Al-Faruq is the major Islamic center in the north part of the Island. 2004 official data estimated there are 6,000 Muslims in Puerto Rico, representing about 12% percent of the population. The early Muslim community largely consisted of Palestinians who arrived between 1958 and 1962. At the time, the vast majority of Puerto Rico's Muslims lived in Río Piedras – a crowded suburb of San Juan – where they operated restaurants, jewelry stores and clothing outlets. In September of 1980, a shop owner decided to call people for Friday prayer in his store. It was attended by 7 people and they continued that practice for about 8 months. In May of 1981, purchased a store at 215 Padre Colón St and converted it into a Mosque. About 80% of the Muslim population are Palestinians, 7% Pakistanis, 7% Lebanese, 3% are indigenous Muslims and the other 3% are Egyptians, Moroccans, and other nationalities.

There are 8 Mosques/Islamic centers in Puerto Rico. Four of them (Vega Alta, Hatillo, Ponce, and Fajardo) are major land marks with their elegant domes and minarets.

The Islamic Center of El Paso, established in 1982, is the main source of religious and social stimuli for area Muslims. With an estimated 3000 Muslims (50% Middle eastern, 25% from the subcontinent, 15% Hispanic, 10% other nationalities) in the El Paso region, the Islamic Center of El Paso has seen a steady increase in its members over the past several years. In addition to the residents of the city of El Paso the Islamic Center of El Paso plays host to the military personnel stationed at Fort Bliss and Biggs Army Air Field located in Central El Paso. The new 16,000 square foot facility, located on nearly 5 acres in West El Paso, marks the beginning of a new stage for area Muslims after more than 20 years of worship in a converted house in Downtown El Paso's Historic Rio Grande District. The old center was sold in 2005.

There are about 140 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 20 full time Islamic schools in Texas. Major Muslim concentrations are in Houston, Dallas/Fort Worth, Austin/San Antonio areas and their vicinities.

www.icnvt.org
Year Completed: 2007

Islamic Center Northern Virginia Trust (ICNVT) was founded on December 4, 1981. The construction that started in the 1990s was completed just in time for Eid ul Al-Fitr of 2007. It is one of the latest additions to the landscape of Northern Virginia. The new facility is spreading over three floors adorned with a beautiful dome and covering an area of 11,600 sq. ft. to accommodate more than one thousand people. Attached to the Masjid is the Islamic School comprising of fifteen rooms on three floors with a capacity of more than three hundred students. The school built on an area of 4,700 sq. ft. will pursue a complete syllabus of Islamic education. A nice community hall of 2656 sq. ft. will be used for holding seminars, conferences and lectures on important Islamic occasions. It will also be used for marriage ceremonies and other socio-cultural get-togethers. The second phase will include an Islamic library & research center.

There are about 85 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 13 full time Islamic schools in Virginia.

The Hajj (pilgrimage) is (in) the well-known (lunar year) months. So whosoever intends to perform Hajj therein (by assuming Ihrâm), then he should not have sexual relations (with his wife), nor wickedness, nor dispute unjustly during the Hajj. And whatever good you do, (be sure) Allâh knows it. And take a provision (with you) for the journey, but the best provision is At-Taqwa (piety, righteousness). So fear Me, O men of understanding! Islamic Center of Washington (Idris Mosque)

1420 NE Northgate Way
Seattle, WA 98125, USA
(206) 363-3013
www.simq.org

Year Completed: 1982

Idriss Mosque was established in 1981. It is the flagship Mosque for Seattle in Washington State. It was the first mosque west of the Mississippi River designed in an Arabesque architecture style. Idriss Mosque is not a membership organization and welcomes thousands of worshipers and visitors every year. The mosque offers a variety of services and activities for Muslims and non Muslims to improve our communities and relationships in the greater Seattle and Puget Sound regions of the Northwest. Administrators representing the Puget Sound Masajids (Kent, Sea-Tac, East Side; Abu-Bakr, Cham, Everett, West Seattle, Omar Farooq and Idris Mosque) met March 2003 and decided to create an Islamic Council of Washington State. The purpose was to unite all Muslims in the Puget Sound area and expand to include all Muslims in Washington State, and to have one voice representative of all Muslims in Washington State. The local Islamic center aspires to establish an Islamic preschool and an adult ESL & citizenship classes in addition to their current Dawa programs.

There are about 45 Mosques/ Islamic centers and 2 full time Islamic schools in Washington.
